

Chapter 6 - EIS Preparers

Kathleen Concannon, Assistant Environmental Coordinator, Concannon Creative Services. Responsible for various aspects of the environmental process including analysis and document preparation. Education: B.S. Earth Sciences. Experience: Environmental analysis, resource planning and NEPA review. With BPA from 1979 to 1990, providing contract services to the agency since that time.

Doug Corkran, Writer/editor and Fish and Wildlife Biologist. Responsible for editing various sections of the EIS and overseeing the fish and wildlife sections. Education: MA Environmental Planning, BA, Biology. Experience: Fish and wildlife biology, NEPA compliance, ESA compliance; with BPA since 2005.

Alex Dupey, AICP, Planner, David Evans and Associates, Inc.. Responsible for Land Use, Transportation, Recreation, Socioeconomics, Air Quality, FFP, and Environmental Justice. Education: Master of Community and Regional Planning. Experience: Land use and environmental planning, with DEA since 2000.

David Ellis, Archeologist, Archaeological Investigations Northwest Inc. Responsible for Cultural Resources. Education: B.A. Anthropology, Master of Public Administration. Experience: Field Archaeology; with AINW since 1990.

Gene Lynard, Senior Environmental Specialist, Project Environmental Lead. Responsible for providing environmental clearance on the proposed action. Education: B.A., Geography, Master of City and Regional Planning. Experience: Environmental planning and real estate development economics in private and public sectors; with BPA as a contractor and employee since 1984.

Kristina Gifford McKenzie, Planner, David Evans and Associates, Inc. Responsible for Alternatives (Klondike III and Biglow Canyon wind projects), and document quality review. Education: B.A. Communications; Master of Urban and Regional Planning. Experience: Land use planning, environmental analysis and NEPA review; with DEA since 1990.

Philip Rickus, Biologist, David Evans and Associates, Inc.. Responsible for Fish and Wildlife, Vegetation, and Waters/Wetlands. Education: B.A. in Biology Experience: Field biology; with DEA since 1999.

Dana Siegfried, Project Manager, David Evans and Associates, Inc. Responsible for overall EIS preparation, staffing, and project management. Education: B.S. Zoology, M.S. Marine Resource Management. Experience: Environmental regulations and permitting; with DEA since 1998.

Sean Sullivan, Landscape Architect (OR No. 412), David Evans and Associates, Inc. Responsible for Scenic Resources and Geology. Education: Bachelor of Landscape Architecture; Master of Landscape Architecture. Experience: Aesthetic and recreation resource assessment, visual and environmental mitigation design, visual simulations, and ecological restoration; with DEA since 1996.

Aaron Turecek, GIS Specialist, David Evans and Associates, Inc. Responsible for mapping and graphics. Education: B.A. Geological Science; Experience: applying GIS and remote sensing technology to natural resource management projects in the Pacific Northwest; with DEA since 2000.

Doug Wittren, GIS Specialist, Bonneville Power Administration. Responsible for spatial data coordination, analysis and mapping products. Education: M.S., B.S. Earth Sciences (Geography emphasis). With BPA since 1992 producing spatial technology solutions using GIS for a variety of BPA projects throughout the Northwest.